

People with Abilities

Disability Support Worker – Casual Position

Wangarang is a community based, not-for-profit organisation providing job opportunities and support services for people with disabilities in Orange.

We are seeking a motivated and reliable person to provide support to people with disabilities in areas such as:

- Social outings
- Accessing the community
- Daily living skills
- Recreational activities

The successful applicant will be comfortable working with people with a range of disabilities in a variety of settings. They will be able to provide support in small groups as well as one to one. Flexibility with hours is required.

Wangarang can offer you:

- Work/life balance
- A supportive and fulfilling work environment
- Significant tax benefits

To be considered for the role you will require the following:

- An understanding of the special needs of people with disabilities
- The ability to work within a team environment as well as work independently
- Highly developed interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to follow set procedures
- Certificate III Individual Support or Community Services (or willingness to obtain)
- A current driver's licence with safe driving record
- A current first aid certificate (or willingness to obtain)
- NDIS Worker Check Clearance (or willingness to obtain)

To apply please submit:

- A cover letter detailing why you believe you would make an exceptional Disability Support Worker – only applications with a cover letter will be considered
- An up-to-date resume

Applications should be sent to swilliams@wangarang.com.au and will be reviewed as they are submitted.