

People with Abilities

Crew Leader (Warehouse)

Wangarang is a community based, not-for-profit organisation providing job opportunities and support services for people with disabilities in Orange NSW.

We are seeking a hands-on person to fill the full-time position of Crew Leader.

The Crew Leader is responsible for leading crews of supported employees in a factory environment and a variety of work settings.

Wangarang can offer you:

- A supportive and fulfilling work environment
- Work/life balance
- Significant tax benefits

Responsibilities include:

- Mentoring, training, supporting and engaging team members with a disability
- Moving, quality checking and packaging stock to meet production requirements
- Maintaining and contributing to a warehouse environment
- Forklift operation
- Record keeping
- Working in other areas such as cleaning as required

To be considered for the role you will need:

- The ability to work while providing the necessary supervision, support and coaching to employees
- Well developed people and time management skills
- Forklift licence (or willingness to obtain)
- Medium rigid driver's licence (or willingness to obtain)
- Current first aid certificate (or willingness to obtain)
- NDIS Worker Check clearance (or ability to obtain)
- Commitment to work health and safety policies and procedures
- Full Covid-19 vaccination or medical exemption

To apply for this position please submit:

- A cover letter detailing your suitability for the role – only applications with a cover letter will be considered
- An up-to-date resume

Wangarang is an EEO employer committed to the NDIS Practice Standards.

If you would like to discuss this opportunity please phone the Human Resources Manager on 02 6365 6500.

Applications should be submitted to swilliams@wangarang.com.au and will be reviewed as they are submitted.